

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

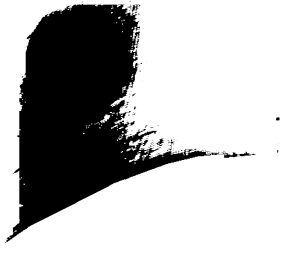

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. 1 DIRECTION LABELS,

OF

PARCHMENT, CLOTH, AND PAPER-CLOTH & TAGS

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, MANUFACTURED BY

VICTOR E. MAUGER,

No. 115 Chambers Street, NEW YORK.

The Subscriber having perfected his Machinery for the Manufacture of the above Direction Labels, would respectfully intimate to the Manufacturers, Merchants, Bankers, Express Companies, and Hotel Proprietors of the United States that he is now prepared to execute Orders for any quantity at the shortest notice, and in the best possible manner.

Although, considering their recent introduction, the Labels are pretty generally known and appreciated; for the benefit of those who may not as yet have used them, from amongst their numerous advantages the following may be submitted:—

1. THEIR CHEAPNESS—The price of them generally exceeding little, if any, the price paid for Common Cards, indeed, in many in tances, the latter costing more,

2. THEIR STRENGTH AND DURABILITY.—The material (at least the Cloth and Paper Cloth) is manufactured for the express purpose. The Parchment Labels, are made from Genuine British Skins only, well known to be the strongest material in existence for writing purposes. The eyleet being strongly inserted through two to four ply of the folded Parchment, Cloth and Paper Cloth, the liability of their giving way at that point is reduced to a minimum. The Parchment and Cloth Labels are confidently recommended as being capable of withstanding almost any amount of bad weather and hard usuage.

3. THEIR CONVENIENCE—This is apparent; a dozen may be written out and securely attached to the same number of different packages, in half as many minutes. Besides the foregoing, Merchants well know, when sending away goods, the advantage of having their names and address attached to them, in case of mistake in forwarding, or otherwise.

4. The Printed Direction Labels are obviously the best, most striking and cheapest advertisement in use.

VICTOR E. MAUGER.

CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKEY.

CERTIFICATES.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept 9th., 1858.

We have carefully tested the sample of Chestnut Grove Whiskey which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the poisonous substance known as Fusil Oil which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskeys in general use.

BOOTH, GARRET & CAMAC, Analytical Chemists.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3d, 1858.

I have analyzed a sample of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, received from Mr. Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unnsually pure and fine flavored quality of whiskey, JAMES R. CHILTON, Analytical Chemist.

BOSTON, March 7, 1859.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chestnut Grove Whiskey which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this whiskey is derived from the grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer, No. 16 Boylston St.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The first edition of the MISSOURI STATE GAZETTEER AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY is here presented to the public with that degree of diffidence, which a profound anxiety with regard to its thoroughness, accuracy and general usefulness would naturally occasion in the minds of its authors, and yet with the proud consciousness that every effort has been made to ensure its fullest efficiency, which long experience could suggest, or patient labor accomplish. The compilers have spared no pains to make this work reliable, even in the most trifling details; in the orthography of proper names the utmost care has been taken to insure correctness.

It is hoped that the extensive and elaborate Indexes, the systematic Classification and general arrangement will be highly useful in referring to the various Departments.

In addition to the descriptive and statistical matter, we have thought proper to include the Special Laws of the State, Tables of Standard Weights and Measures, with much other information of a general character, which it is hoped will greatly enhance the value of the book as a work of reference.

Many new and original features will be found to characterize this work throughout, which is not the proper place to enumerate here. It is not to be expected that a work of this character, embracing so many thousand particulars, gathered from so many original sources, can be entirely free from errors; perfection, so difficult of attainment in every department of industry, is especially so in the compilation of a work of this kind; but, for such errors as may be found within these pages, we solicit the kind indulgence of our patrons to overlook, in view of the general reliability and correctness of the work.

In conclusion, we desire to present our grateful acknowledgements to the various Postmasters throughout the State, who have so kindly and promptly furnished us with much useful information, which otherwise would have involved much time and expense to procure. We also tender our thanks to the several newspaper editors, publishers, superintendents of Railways, and other gentlemen for the many courtesies extended to us and our agents during the late canvass; and especially to merchants of St. Louis do we feel grateful for the substantial aid and encouragement received from the commencement. The extensive advertising Department of our work fully attests their liberality and will, we trust, be found as profitable to them as useful to the million readers who will have occasion to refer to them.

Large as is the present edition it is nearly exhausted even before it leaves the Press, and a constantly increasing demand is anticipated, which will doubtless render it necessary to print a new edition at an early day.

The public are assured that the high reputation of our former works will be sustained regardless of labor or expense.

ARCADIA,

A village of Iron county, Arcadia township, pleasantly situated in the midst of a rich and mountainous country, two miles from the present terminus of the Iron Mountain Railroad, one-half mile from Ironton, the county seat. This village affords a pleasant retreat for families during the summer months, the valley abounds with the finest mineral springs, the properties of which are sulphur and iron, and particularly conducive to health, an excellent hotel will be found here, called the Arcadia House, under the excellent management of Mr. Z. J. Harris, who strives his best to please his guests. The rooms are large and airy, and the grounds spacious, affording an excellent playground for the children of St. Louis, who are always found down here during the summer months. The nights are cool and refreshing, and the springs so much valued here are chiefly situated on the grounds of the hotel, thus affording everything needful and pleasant

BOONVILLE,

The county seat of Cooper county, Boonville township, is beautifully situated on the Missouri River, 225 miles from St. Louis, and 50 from Jefferson City. The post office called Boonville has been established thirty-five years, and the town was settled about the same time by A. Morgan. There are several stage routes emanating from this city. One to St. Joseph, 200 miles; to Syracuse 25 miles; Tipton 25 miles, and the North Missouri Railroad 45 miles. The town contains four churches. viz: Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal and Presbyterian, and one Female College.

The Masons have a Lodge, viz: Cooper Lodge, No. 36, a Chapter, No. 5, and Council No. 19. The I. O. O. F.'s have three Lodges, viz: Far West Lodge, No. 4, Olive Branch, No. 36, and Golden Link, No. 94; there is also a Boonville Encampment. There are two papers published in Boonville, viz: The Patriot, by T. M. Caldwell, issued every Saturday, and the Observer, issued on the same day and published by A. W. Simpson. A bank is also located here, viz: St. Louis Bank, having a capital of $200,000. The chief productions are corn, wheat and oats. Its timber, black and white walnut, oak, ash, and hickory. Coal is its only mineral. Improved land may be bought from $15 to $150 per acre, and unimproved at $10 per acre. Population about 4.000.

CARBON,

A small station on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, in Macon county, 3 miles from Hudson and 67 from Hannibal. In the vicinity of the place is found an abundance of good coal.

CARONDELET,

An important town of St. Louis county, situated on the Mississippi river and on the line of the Iron Mountain Railroad, 6 miles from St. Louis. This town was first settled by the French about fifty years ago, and derives its name from one of its early settlers, Baron DeCarondelet. Up to the last few years, Carondelet has been peopled almost entirely by French and Germans, and very little progression had been made either in improvements or increase of population. Latterly, however, the town seems to have taken a fresh start, a great many Americans have settled there, who, together with the more enterprising portion of its older inhabitants, are endeavoring to make up for lost time. The change is very manifest. Large blocks of business houses are being erected on the main street, manufacturing establishments are already in operation, and others in course of building. There is, perhaps, no city in Missouri which has better facilities for general manufacturing than Carondelet. She has a good harbor, rock and water in abundance and easy access both to St. Louis and the iron and lead mines 80 miles below. Unite these advantages with capital and enterprise, and you have all that is needed in building up a good manufacturing town. The city contains four churches, viz., Methodist, Presbyterian, Catholic, and Lutheran. The Academy of St. Joseph is an imposing building, erected on a beautiful table land which rises boldly from the banks of the river. It is conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph and is in very successful operation. There is also another Catholic institution of learning, and a Protestant select school. The Odd Fellows have a lodge here, (Carondelet No. 114.) A weekly paper is published by A. W. McDonald, and edited by Jas. M. Loughborough, called the Carondelet New Era. Other institutions are about being established, viz., a bank, a city library and a lyceum. The chief productions are corn, potatoes and vegetables. Its timber, oak, hickory and walnut. Improved land is worth from $100 to $150, and unimproved from $50 to $100. Every inducement is made in selling land for manufacturing purposes. The town is well supplied with the usual mercantile houses, and the inhabitants are making strenuous endeavors to build up a town of importance and permanency. Population 3,000.

CARROLLTON,

The county seat of Carroll county, Wakonda township, about 180 miles from St. Louis, and 90 to Jefferson City, was first settled by James Standley, in March, 1818. It contains one Baptist and one Presbyterian church, a Masonic lodge, viz., Wakonda, No. 52, numbering 100 members, and Philadelphia lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., 45 members. It supports a weekly paper called the Carrollton Democrat, which was started in the summer of 1857. There is also a Seminary, the reputation of which stands high for the education of both male and female. The object of the trustees of this institution is one that will afford all necessary advantages, comforts and facilities for a thorough, extensive and finished education. It will be found an institution liberal in character, and affording such ample facilities, that no parent will be under the necessity of sending his child and money to a distant school, in order to have him properly educated; an Institutian at home that will fully meet the wants of the citizens of Carrollton and vicinity, so rapidly increasing in population and in resources to educate their children. It is situated on a beautiful eminence in the Southern

CAVE PUMP,

A post village of Camden county, Osage township, situated on the Big Niangua river, six miles from Linn Creek, the county seat. It contains one church and a good school house. Its chief productions are corn, wheat, oats and rye. Timber, oak and walnut. Iron is the only mineral, and that is found in abundance. The river affords several excellent mill sites. Cultivated lands may be had from $5 to $10 per acre, and uncultivated from $1 to $2 per acre. As there is abundance of public land, timber, iron ore and water power, it would seem that the manufacturing of iron could be made very profitable. Cave Pump is 200 miles from St. Louis and 60 miles from Jefferson City.

FULTON,

The county seat of Callaway county, Fulton township, is beautifully and advantageously situated in the midst of a rich and fertile country, 125 miles from St. Louis, and 24 miles from Jefferson City. It was first settled by Geo. Nichols and John Yates, in or about the year 1825. The post office was established one year afterwards. There are six stage routes running from here, viz.; to Jefferson City 24 miles; St. Aubert Station, on the Pacific Railroad, 15 miles; Danville 27 miles; Paris 50 miles; Portland 14 miles; Columbia 25 miles. A weekly newspaper is published here called the Missouri Telegraph, Williams & Turner, publishers. The Masons have one lodge, viz., Fulton Lodge, No. 48, and the Odd Fellows one, (Callaway Lodge, No. 105.) The different religious denominations are well represented here, consisting of a Methodist church, Rev. Mayhew, pastor; Christian, Elder P. K. Dibble, pastor; Presbyterian, Rev. W. W. Robertson, pastor; Missionary Baptist, Rev. J. G. Smith, pastor; and Old Style Baptist, Rev. T. Boulware, pastor. Fulton contains the State Lunatic Asylum, Deaf and Dumb Asylum, and is the seat of the Westminster College, with an endowment of $100,000, under the control of the O. S. Presbyterians, two seminaries, viz., Fulton Female Seminary, and Floral Hill, with an excellent and well governed district school, all of which are in a flourishing and prosperous condition. The city contains one branch bank, one brewery, one carding machine, four carriage and wagon shops, one clothing store, two drug stores, one fancy goods store, two steam flouring mills, two groceries, eight general stores, one hardware store, three harness shops, two good hotels, three jewelry stores, two livery stables, one marble yard, one printing office, four saw mills, three stove and tin ware dealers. A branch of the Western Bank of Missouri is about being organized here, the capital required being $50,000, towards which $25,000 or $30,000 has been already subscribed. The average price of uncultivated lands is $10 per acre, and of cultivated $25. The timber consists chiefly of oak. Stone coal is found here in large quantities. A great business is done in the raising of stock. Population 2,000, and rapidly increasing.

HANNIBAL,

An important city, and the commercial emporium of north-east Missouri, situated on the west bank of the Mississippi river, about 150 miles above St. Louis. It was first laid out in 1819; the town was incorporated in 1839. This city has grown rapidly within the last five years, and especially since the completion of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad.

The style of the buildings in Hannibal is good, and more than two-thirds are of brick. The frame houses are comparatively small, while many of the brick edifices would be a credit to cities of much larger pretensions. Among the buildings of a public character, is Brittingham's Hall. It is of brick, with iron front on the ground floor, two stories high, (second floor thirty feet in the clear), and covers a space of ground 63x142 feet, on the corner of Market and Fourth streets.

The "Hannibal City Institute" is a spacious three story brick building, situated on Market street, near Maple Avenue.

As a location for health and beauty, there is no better upon the river. Being upon the west bank, all the miasma of the river is carried away by the west wind, which prevails nine-tenths of the time. As a business location, there is no point above St. Louis enjoying so advantageous a position, in any point of view. Blessed with an energetic, intelligent, and able population, and combining all the essential elements necessary to constitute greatness, it would be indeed strange if she did not press forward to the elevated position to which nature has designed and fitted her. There is every indication, too, that she will not falter or weary in the race. The rapidly increasing railroad facilities, with Nature's great highway, the Mississippi, constitute a ready means of transportation for all kinds of products to all parts of the country, and whilst the surrounding country is rapidly filling up with an industrious population, it demands and must be supplied with such articles as the manufacturers and mechanics of Hannibal produce, and many others which the natural facilities of the place would enable them to produce cheaply and well.

Within the last five years its population has doubled, and it now reaches the very respectable number of eight thousand.

In manufactures Hannibal has two large tobacco factories, three flouring mills, two planing mills, two saw mills, two founderies and machine shop, one extensive rope manufactory, one match manufactory, soap and candle manufactory, soda factory, two carriage and wagon factories, two cigar establishments, three tin, copper and sheet iron manufactories, two very extensive pork packing establishments and gas light and coke company, together with manufactories of furniture, boots and shoes, marble, railroad cars and agricultural implements. It contains ten churches, viz.: First Presbyterian (O. S.), First Presbyterian (N. S.), Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal (South), First Baptist, Second Presbyterian (O. S.) Christian, Trinity Church (Episcopal), Church of the Immaculate Conception (Catholic), and Congregational Church.

There are three railroads terminating here, viz.: Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, 206 miles in length, Pike County Railroad having its western terminus opposite Hannibal, and connecting at Naples with the Great Western Railroad of Illinois, and the Hannibal and Peoria Railroad now in course of construction.

HERMANN,

The county seat of Gasconade county, Roark township, situated on the Missouri river and on the line of the Pacific Railroad, 81 miles from St. Louis and 44 from Jefferson City. This town was first settled by the German Settlement Society of Philadelphia, Pa., in the year 1837, and the post office was established in 1840. It contains two churches, viz.: Catholic and Protestant, a German and district school house, a Gasconade county saving institution, a Masonic lodge, called Hermann No. 123, and Robert Blum Lodge No. 46 I. O. O. F., a German paper, Germanner Volksblatt, is issued every Saturday, and published by Jacob Graff, jr.

The chief productions are wheat, barley, corn and oats. This is also a great fruit country; the grape is cultivated to a great extent. Iron is found here. Improved land is worth from $10 to $25 per acre, and unimproved $5. The town is healthy, the country around well watered and timbered, and the soil productive. For the cultivation of fruit there is no better soil in the State. A good year's growth of the grape will yield from 100,000 to 125,000 gallons of wine, which is worth from $1¼ to $2 per gallon. A steam ferry boat is greatly needed here. Population about 1,500.

IRONTON,

The county seat of Iron county, Arcadia township, is pleasantly and romantically situated in the midst of a rich valley of land one mile from the present terminus of the Iron Mountain railroad. There is no portion of the State which presents to the lover of nature more grand and imposing scenery than is found here. Within one mile of the town the far-famed Pilot Knob lifts its more than gigantic battlements towards the heavens, the valleys are rich with verdure, abounding with springs and streams of the coolest water. Here is to be found instruction and wonders for the scientific explorer, and all that is beautiful in nature for the pleasure seeker; objects of profound speculation for the philosopher, and scenes of paradisical beauty and delight for the poetic dreamer and votary of the muses.

Immediately in the vicinity of Ironton are found some of the finest of mineral springs; one in particular, a chalybeate spring, the properties of which consist chiefly of sulphur and iron, is situated within easy access of the hotel. Ironton has already become a favorite summer resort for families glad to leave the heat and annoyances of a crowded city. The springs around here are equal in their medicinal qualities to any in the world, while the chalybeate of all this iron country mantle the cheek with rosy blood and imparts vigor and tone to the nervous system. A large, airy and commodious hotel will be found here, called the Ironton House. The proprietor, Col. H. N. Tong, is an experienced host, who takes pride in providing everything that will administer to the comfort of his guests.

Ironton was first settled by a Mr. Stout 40 years ago. The post office was established in the year 1858. The distance from St. Louis is 87 miles, and from Jefferson City 212 miles by railroad and 160 miles by land. There is a two-horse stage line daily from Ironton to Pocahontas, Ark., Batesville, Little Rock, and San Antonia, Texas. Two papers are issued here, the Ironton Furnace, by James Lindsay, every Friday, and the Ironton Baptist Journal, by Wm. Polk, first of every month. A female high school under the excellent management of Mrs. N. H. Parker, is in operation. The Odd Fellows have a lodge, viz: Iron Lodge, No. 107. The number of churches are three, viz: one Methodist, one Baptist and one Presbyterian. The chief productions are corn, wheat, oats and tobacco. Timber, oak, ash, hickory and walnut. Minerals, iron, marble, copper and lead. Land may be bought on an average at $85 per acre, including improved and unimproved. Population 500.

JEFFERSON CITY,

The county seat of Cole county, and the capital of the State of Missouri, is beautifully situated on the south bank of the Missouri River, opposite the mouth of Cedar Creek, and 148 miles from its confluence with the Mississippi River, latitude 38° 36′ north, and longitude 92° 08′ west—980 miles west of Washington, and on the Pacific Railroad 125 miles from St. Louis. The site of the city is elevated and uneven, and presents a fine view from the State House. The principal buildings are the State House, one of the finest stone edifices in the country, the Governor's house, a fine and elegant mansion, the State Penitentiary, Churches, and several fine Hotels, viz: City, Virginia, Tennessee, and McCarty. It contains several stores, manufactures of wood and iron, cabinet furniture, boots and shoes, tinware, harness and saddles, clothing, wagons and carriages, and flouring mills, and a bank, a branch of the Bank of the State of Missouri. The Jefferson Examiner is the official State paper, and is published by W. G. Cheney.

There are three stage routes, as follows: from Jefferson City to Columbia, distance 30 miles; to Fulton City, distance 25 miles, and to Tuscumbia, distance 40 miles. Population 3,500.

NOTE.—The lists of county, city and township officers, as well as names of State officers, and other information relative to the various State departments, will be found in the latter part of this work.

KANSAS CITY,

An important city of Jackson county, Kaw township, situated on the Missouri river, three-quarters of a mile below the mouth of Kansas river, and near the western boundary line. It is the western terminus of the Pacific railroad, which is rapidly pushing forward to this point, and is also on the line of the Great Pacific railroad. There are few cities in the west that have grown so permanently and rapidly as Kansas City. The situation is elevated and picturesque, commanding a fine view of the river and of Wyandotte Cit , Kansas. The style of buildings are good, being chiefly brick, beautifully designed, and substantially built; the streets are wide and well improved. It has seven churches, viz., Methodist, Methodist, (North,) Baptist, Presbyterian, Episcopal, Reformed, and Catholic, two daily newspapers, viz., Western Journal of Commerce and Metropolitan, four weeklies, viz., Western Journal of Commerce, Western Metropolitan, Free State Republican, and Missouri Post, (German,) two banks, (Branch of Mechanics' Bank and Branch of Union Bank of Missouri,) one Banking Office, a board of trade, one local Insurance Company, and several benevolent and literary societies. It manufactures consist of agricultural implements, boots and shoes, ale and lager beer, brick making, bookbinding, brooms, cabinet furniture, carriages and wagons, clothing, confection-

KINGSVILLE,

A post town of Johnson county, Jackson and Madison townships, situated on a beautiful prairie, having Black Water on one side and the waters of Big Creek on the other. The town is immediately on the line of the Pacific Railroad, twenty miles from Warrensburg, the county seat, 287 miles from St. Louis, and 112 from Jefferson City; it was first settled in the year 1857, by General Wm. M. King & Sons, and the Post Office established in the same year. There are several stage lines running from this place, viz: Warrensburg 20 miles, Georgetown 50, Otterville 63, Tipton 76, Pleasant Hill 12, Independence 37, and a line from Chapel Hill to Rose Hill, running once a week. The town contains three Churches, Methodist, Baptist and Cumberland Presbyterian. This place is surrounded by a rich and productive prairie country, interspersed with groves of the best of timber, and underlaid with an abundance of stone coal. As for health, it is unsurpassed by any place in the State. The price of cultivated lands averages from $12 to $15 per acre, and for uncultivated, $8 to $12. The chief productions are corn, wheat, oats and rye. Timber, black walnut, hickory and oak. Population 75.

MEXICO,

The county seat of Audrain county, is situated on the line of the North Missouri Railroad, 108 miles from St. Louis, and 50 from Jefferson City. The town was first settled in the year 1836. Up to the year 1857 its growth was very slow, but since the opening of the railroad, it has increased rapidly in importance and population. A large extent of fine farming country, which is being rapidly brought under cultivation, is tributary to the town, making it an excellent point for trade. The manufacturing business is extensively carried on here, especially in agricultural implements. The town contains five churches, two public schools, one female school, a Masonic lodge, viz.: Mexico, No. 26, and a Chapter No. 27, one Odd Fellows' Lodge, viz.: Mexico, No. 99, also the Star Prairie Lodge, Good Templars, No. 182. The business of the town is prospering, and the citizens noted for their industry and enterprise. Population 1,200.

PARIS.

The county seat of Monroe county, Jackson township, situated on the South bank of the Middle Fork of Salt river, 130 miles from St. Louis, and 75 from Jefferson City. A stage line runs to Fulton via Mexico, Shelbina and Allen, the whole length being 50 miles. This town was first laid out by James C. Fox, James R. Abernathy and E. W. McBride in the year 1824, the post office being established six years after. The town contains five churches, viz: Christian, Presbyterian, Methodist, Missionary Baptist and Calvinist. The Masons have a Lodge called Paris Lodge No. 88. Their Hall is a new one, making quite an ornament to the city. There is also an Odd Fellows' Lodge, viz: Paris Lodge, No. 202. A weekly paper is published here by Messrs. J. M. Bean and A. G. Mason, called the Paris Weekly Mer-of 1857. There is one stage route from Fort Scott, Kansas, to Bentonville, Arkansas, passing through Pineville; distance 85 miles. It contains one Lyceum, the Pineville Academy, one Masonic Lodge, Yancey No. 148, four churches, viz: M. E. Church, Cumberland Presbyterian, Methodist Protestant, and Missionary Baptist, two hotels, one wagon shop, three blacksmiths, six stores, one flouring mill, four saw mills, three lumber yards, one boot and shoe manufactory, and one cabinet maker. Rutledge, the former county seat, is six miles distant; Enterprise, 17 miles north-west; Looneisville, 15 miles north-east; White Rock Prairie, five miles south; Bethpage, 12 miles north; Erie, 10 miles north. Average price of cultivated lands, $10 to $25 per acre, uncultivated $5 to $15. Timber, pine in abundance, oak, walnut, sycamore and cherry; mineral, lead, which has been found in various portions of the county. Chief products, wheat, corn, oats, rye, tobacco and apples, which are shipped by means of flat boats down the Elk into Grand and Arkansas rivers, to Fort Gibson and Van Buren, and immediate points. The boats are sold at $1,50 per foot, which is considered advantageous and profitable. The boats are bought chiefly by the Indians for ferry purposes. The Senecas, Cherokees, and Creeks, inhabit this portion of the territory through which the rivers Elk and Grand flow. It very often occurs that on the annual payments to the several tribes of Indians living on those rivers, that speculators make a handsome profit by sending down empty boats, which they purchase, having plenty of money, as each Indian is ambitious to own either one or two boats for his own exclusive use.

PLATTE CITY,

The county seat of Platte county, Carroll township, beautifully situated on the left bank of the Platte river, about 40 miles from its entrance into the Missouri river. Platte river is navigable for small boats during four months in the year. It was first settled in 1837, by Zed. Martin, G, P. Daviess, L. D. Johnson, and others. Platte City carries on an active trade in hemp and other articles, and at present is in quite a flouring condition. There is a prospect of a railroad from St. Joseph to Kansas City passing through Atchison, Weston and Platte City. The soil of the country about this town is very rich and productive, and unsurpassed by any in the State. Hemp, corn, wheat, oats, &c., are the products. Land improved is worth from $30 to $50 per acre. It is the seat of two flourishing and admirably conducted Academies—the male academy is under the surpervision of Prof. F. G. Gaylord, principal, assisted by Charles Raffington, A. B., the attendance at it being one hundred and fifteen students. Prof. Hugh B. Todd is principal of the Female Academy, assisted by Mrs. Hannah Creal, and Misses Elizabeth Dakin, Sheba Blanton, and Mollie Chinn, and has an attendance of eighty-four boarders and fifty-six day pupils, making in all one hundred and forty students. It has one newspaper, viz., the Platte City Weekly Atlas, published by Marsh & Short, one Masonic Lodge, Platte Lodge, No. 56, and Nebraska Lodge, No. 12, I. O. O. F., four churches, Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Christian, one plow maker, one architect, ten attorneys at law, one bakery, three blacksmith shops, one boot and shoe shop, two clothing store, one carding machine, one wagon shop, two drug stores, two flouring mills, seven general stores, two harness shops, two hotels, one jewelry store, one livery stable, one millinery and fancy goods, five phy-

POINT PLEASANT,

A post village of New Madrid county, Lesieur township. Six months ago this village was surveyed and plated upon a large scale, containing some three hundred lots besides the Bravais addition. It is situated on the Mississippi river, 8 miles below New Madrid, the county seat, and commands a beautiful view both above and below. The banks of the river at this place are permanent and above overflow from the river. It is an important shipping point from which large quantities of corn, wheat and oats, also, cattle, mules, horses and hogs, are annually sent to market by steam boats. It is immediately opposite the line dividing Kentucky and Tennessee, at 36 ° 30' north latitude. It enjoys a good trade from Kentucky and Tennessee, which States are in sight, also, from Arkansas on the west, distant 28 miles, and from the south-east counties of Missouri. A plank road, leading from Point Pleasant to West Prairie in Dunklin county, Mo., will shortly be completed, which will add greatly to the business of the place, as the people residing in the counties of Dunklin, Stoddard, Butler and Ripley, Missouri, and in Greene, Poinsette and Randolph counties, Arkansas, have been entirely cut off from all direct communication with the counties bordering on the Mississipoi river by reason of an impassable swamp, running parallel with the river for the distance of about 200 miles. By means of this plank road they will be enabled to reach the markets of St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans at all seasons of the year. For the last thirty years there has been a very large trade done here in furs and peltries, the average annual purchases being about $30,000. Within the last six or eight years the collections have gradually declined anually, and are now probably reduced to some $10,000 or $12,000. This decrease is accounted for from the fact that many of the old hunters have abandoned the pursuit of game and pay more attention to agriculture which they find more profitable. This township is above all known floods of the Mississippi river, and therefore as soon as said plank road shall be completed, an easy access will be at all times afforded to the people living in the heretofore isolated counties in Missouri and Arkansas, to the great mart and highway, the Mississippi river.

ST. GENEVIEVE,

The county seat of St. Genevieve county, on the west bank of the Mississippi, opposite the Island of St. Genevieve, 72 miles below St. Louis, and 117 miles east southeast of Jefferson City. It is finely situated and is healthy. It has considerable trade, particularly in lead, large quantities of which, as well as iron and copper, exist in the neighborhood. The village is built on Gabourie Creek, a small stream which, at certain seasons, is navigable for a few miles. It has one or two newspaper offices, a Catholic church and academy. Population 800.

ST. JOSEPH,

The county seat of Buchanan county, and business emporium of North-western Missouri, North-eastern Kansas, South-eastern Nebraska, and South-western Iowa—is situate on the great Eastern bend of the Missouri river, about 566 miles above St. Louis. The surrounding country is one of unsurpassed richness and beauty. The site of the city, marked by great boldness, is on the spurs of a series of hills which terminate in the river at this point. The city is thus built on the amphitheatre of hills, facing the south-west, with a rich alluvial bottom, extending — crescent shaped — several miles along the river at their base. Between the different spurs are small valleys, drained by streams running from the north-east, and bridged on the lines of the principal streets. The levee extends along the base of the hills; and the principal landings—three in number—are where the six principal streets, running at right angles, form their most western angles. At these points there is about thirty feet of water in the channel at low water.

The original settler and proprietor of St. Joseph, Jos. Robidoux, sr., is now living. This gentleman first visited the site of the present city in the last year of the last century. His connection with the American Fur Company led him to locate here in 1803. For thirty-three years he remained as a trader among the savages upon their own soil. In 1836, by the "Platte Purchase," the title to the land passed from the Iowa Sac and Fox Indians to the United States government; and, in 1843, Mr. Robidoux became the proprietor of the site of the city, and proceeded to lay out the "Original Town" of the present map. At first the new town was nothing more than a trading post, and lots were procured for a mere trifle. The richness of the country, however, attracted immigration, and in 1845 a town charter was granted by the Legislature. In 1846 St. Joseph was created the seat of justice of Buchanan county. The growth of the town was for some years gradual. The discovery of gold in California gave fresh impetus to the place. Then it was that the importance of its locality manifested itself, and St. Joseph became the overland starting point of the great tide of emigration to the shores of the Pacific. Her growth by the year 1857 procured for her the charter of a city. Since that period St. Joseph has taken a leading position—which she retains—among the important points in the center of the American continent.

In 1852 the assessed value of real estate and personal property within the city limits was $784,400; in 1855, $998,126; in 1856, $1,406,439; in 1857, $3,300,815; and in 1858, $3,700,000. The population is not less than 10,000.

The geographical and business position of St. Joseph secured for it at an early day the advantages incidental to the terminus of regular steamboat navigation on the river, and it is now the northern terminus of the navigation of the Lower Missouri. One or more of a regular line of packets arrive and depart every day during the month, connecting at St. Joseph with a semi-weekly line of steamers for the Upper Missouri. St. Joseph is also the most western point in the United States reached by the great chain of railroads. This connection is made by means of the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad, which is now open its entire length. The completion of this road has opened a new page in the history of this city. Upon the St. Joseph and Council Bluffs railroad a survey has been made. This road will attract to St. Joseph the trade of the North-West. The St. Joseph and Topeka railroad, calculated to tap the center of the Territory of Kansas, will, from present indications, be the first road constructed west of the Missouri; and the St. Joseph and Atchison railroad, in the south, is nearly completed. A telegraph line has been commenced from Placerville, which is designed to extend to Salt Lake City and thence to Saint Joseph, where it will connect with the eastern lines. At St. Joseph are four steam ferries—two directly across the river to the new city of Elwood, one to a point on the bluffs five miles higher up the river, terminating at Bellemont, and the other to Palermo.

The style of buildings in St. Joseph is good, and more than one-half are of brick. The frame houses are comparatively small, while many of the brick edifices would be a credit to cities of much larger pretensions. Among the buildings of a public character is Odd Fellows' Hall. It is of brick, with iron front on the ground floor, three stories high, and covers a space of ground 40 by 130 feet on the corner of Felix and Fifth streets.

The Convent of the Sacred Heart occupies a commanding position in Smith's Addition, on the crest of the hill, three stories high, built of brick, dimensions 64 by 112 feet.

The Court House is on an elevated point near the center, and overlooking the entire city. It is a substantial brick structure of good size.

The St. Joseph Female Seminary is a spacious three story brick building, on the corner of Farron and Third streets, near the Court House.

The foundation of a large Hotel has been laid by a stock company on Francis street, on which the work is now being vigorously prosecuted. Mr. John Patee has completed his large new Hotel, which has been lately opened by Mr. Ogden, formerly of Pittsburg, Pa. The dimensions of this house are 140 by 148 feet, four stories high, with a court yard 60 by 104 feet, and designed to contain 154 rooms. It is located in Patee's Addition.

Thrice the number of buildings—principally brick—erected during any previous year are being put up this season; and gas has been introduced into St. Joseph, which is, in this respect, the pioneer city of the Great West beyond St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS,

A city, port of entry and seat of justice, of St. Louis county, is situated on the right bank of the Mississippi River, 20 miles below the entrance of the Missouri, 174 miles above the mouth of the Ohio, 783 miles below the falls of St. Anthony, 1,200 miles above New Orleans, and 125 miles east of Jefferson City, latitude 38° 37′ 28″ north, longitude 90° 15′ 16″ west. The site rises from the river by plateaus of limestone formation, the first twenty feet and the other sixty feet. The ascent to the first plain is rather abrupt, but to the upper terrace it is more gradual, and from its highest elevation affords a grand prospect of the city, river and the country on every side. St. Louis extends in all nearly seven miles by the curve of the Mississippi, and about three miles back, the thickly settled portion, however, is only three miles in length following the river, and about two miles in breadth.

As originally planned, the city consisted of the three narrow streets, parallel with the river, but after its growth commenced, which was subsequent to its coming into the possession of the Americans, it soon spread its limits. The streets beyond Fourth street are wide and laid off at right angles. Front street or Levee on the river bank is built up of substantial warehouses and is 100 feet wide. On Front, Commercial, Main and Second are located the principal wholesale houses, consisting of grocery, dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, iron, receiving and shipping houses, and several banks and banking offices, and the merchants' exchange building. St. Louis is the great metropolis of the west, and the commercial depot of the upper Mississippi, the Ohio, the Missouri, and their numerous tributaries, affording connected steam navigation for a distance of over 8,000 miles, and passing through countries rich beyond every description in mineral, vegetable, forest and animal products, and requiring for the support of their inhabitants a vast amount of manufactures, and the products of foreign countries; it is the principal port on the Mississippi, and is the chief city in the west in population and wealth. It occupies the geographical centre of the Mississippi valley, and its advantages as a commercial port are unsurpassed, the resources of its immediate vicinity in Missouri are incalculable. In a circuit of less than a hundred miles from the city, iron, coal, lead and copper are sufficient to supply the Union for indefinite ages, and of this region St. Louis is the only outlet, by means of railroads which are being prosecuted with vigor in every direction from St. Louis. This great mineral wealth flows into St. Louis in its crude state to be manufactured and prepared for market in almost every State in the Union. The country around is a magnificent agricultural district, yielding abundantly of all the staples congenial to the latitude; and at this point the overland emigrant and miner for the rich and productive gold mines of Pike's Peak and Western Kansas procure their supplies before setting out on their various adventures.

The growth of St. Louis within the past twenty years has been wonderfully rapid, and each great interest has kept pace with the whole. It is not alone in commerce that she is a great city, but in manufactures, the arts, and in all other departments of industrial economy. Improvement has gone hand in hand with her general prosperity. In everything the change has been magical, situated midway between two oceans, and near the geographical centre of the finest agricultural region on the globe, almost at the very focus toward which converge the Mississippi, the Missouri, the Ohio and the Illinois rivers, there can be no doubt that she is destined at no very remote period to become the great receiving and distributing depot of the vast region drained by these rivers. Having already reached an enviable position among her rival cities, she is looking westward with a system of railways intended not only to bring to her markets the agricultural and mineral wealth of the Missouri basin, but eventually to extend beyond the Rocky mountains, to the valley of the Great Salt Lake, and to the golden shores of the Pacific ocean. The construction of railways penetrating various sections of her own State, designed ultimately to connect with New Orleans, have been undertaken and partly finished. Of these the St. Louis and Iron Mountain extends already a distance of near 90 miles, and every effort is being made to prosecute the work to completion. The North Missouri is finished a distance of 168 miles, and the remaining portion of the road extending from Hudson, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, to the Iowa State line, is under contract. The Pacific railroad is completed as far as Syracuse, Cooper county, a distance of about 170 miles. It has a branch, the South-West Branch, extending from Franklin to St. Clair, which is designed to run through the southwestern portion of the State. The Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, is 206 miles long, and was completed early last Spring. A large extent of country has been opened to the agriculturist of the richest soil, through means of this road.

The opening of these various railroads and others projected, with give St. Louis ready access to almost every portion of the State rich in mineral deposits, which have not heretofore been brought into use on account of the difficulty and expense of reaching the market.

The people of St. Louis and of the State have decided for themselves what shall be their destiny. They have entered upon measures of public improvement, the vastness of which is only equailed by the wisdom that has planned them, and such is the solid wealth, credit and fixed purpose of the people that they will certainly carry out what they have begun, and push on to completion the great railroads—the Pacific, the St. Louis, and Iron Mountain, and the North Missouri. St. Louis can thus be made by virtue of railroad connections the immediate center of commerce and manufacture of 2,000,000 people in Missouri, Illinois and Kansas; while, in a few years, its own population will approximate half a million, and itself be the acknowledged exchange mart of 5,000,000 people.

The city was first settled by Pierre Ligueste Laclede and his associates, under a grant from the Governor-General of Louisiana to the Louisiana Fur Company, dated in the year 1762, and the site of St. Louis was selected by Laclede on February 15th, 1764, as one possessing peculiar advantages for the fur trade and defense against the Indians. In the same year in which the post of St. Louis was established, the treaties were made by which France ceded to Great Britain all the country east of the Mississippi, except New Orleans, and to Spain all the region west of the same river. On the 11th August, 1768, a Spanish officer, by the name of Rious, with a company of troops, took possession of St. Louis and Upper Louisiana as it was termed, under whose government it remained until its final transfer to the United States, in March 26, 1804, during the administration of Thomas Jefferson, for the sum of $13,000,000.

A distinct government was established in 1804, over this territory, in which was included St. Louis, while the region lying below on the Mississippi was called the District of Orleans. General Harrison, being then Governor of the North-west Territory, was clothed with power to govern St. Louis. In 1805, the District of Louisiana became a Territory, and James Wilkinson, the Governor, and R. J. Meigs and J. B. C. Lucas, the Territorial Judges, were empowered with authority to make laws, according to the custom prevalent at that time, whereby the Governor and Judges of a Territory constituted its Legislature. On the 4th of March, 1821, Missouri was admitted into the Union as a State. St. Louis was first incorporated in 1809.

The chief public buildings of St. Louis are the Court House, new Custom House, and Post office, Merchant's Exchange, Mercantile Library Hall, City Hospital, U. S. Marine Hospital, High School Building, Pope's College, St. Louis University, Cathedral, First Presbyterian Church, Union Presbyterian Church and the Church of the Messiah, besides several elegant and handsomely built Business blocks and ten fine Hotels.

Among the benevolent institutions and societies are a State Institution for the education of the Blind, on Franklin avenue, Girls' Industrial Home, corner of Morgan and Nineteenth, Home of the Friendless on Carondelet avenue, Orphans' Home, North St. Louis, Seventh Street Orphan Asylum, between Franklin and Morgan street, Male Orphan Asylum, St. Marys Female Orphan Asylum, St. Vincent's German Orphan Asylum, Widow's Home, Lying-In and Infant Asylum, Institution of Mercy, House of good Shepherd, St. Philomena's, conducted by the Sister's of Charity, St. Vincent's Free School, Sisters Hospital, St. Louis Protestant Hospital and the Martha Washington Benevolent Society.

The statistics of buildings erected in St. Louis, for ten months previous to November 1st, show an aggregate expenditure of $7,173,000. This amount does not include the appropriation for the Court House, of $125,000 nor the amount expended this year on the Lindell House, of $150,000. The number of buildings erected is 2,450, of which 2,346 cost less than $20,000 each. Twenty-nine cost $30,000; five, $40,000; five, $50,000; three, $60,000; one, $90,000, and one, $100,000. The assessed value of real estate is over ten millions higher thon last year. There have been built this season 24 miles of street railroad, at an estimated cost of $192,000. They employ 95 cars, 300 men and 784 horses.

The Public Grounds and Parks are Hyde Park, lying West of Broadway, between Bremen avenue and Salisbury street, in the upper portion of the city, the Fair Grounds on Grand avenue and the North St. Charles road, embracing a tract of fifty acres, on which is a beautiful grove. The Arsenal is situated on Carondelet avenue in the lower part of the city. A street railroad runs to the Arsenal from Fourth street. Lafayette Park, is situated between Lafayette and Park, and Missouri and Mississippi avenues; Gravois Park near Kansas avenue; Laclede Park between Iowa avenue and Gasconade street; Carondelet Park between Michigan avenue and Dacotah street; Washington square between Market and Clark avenues, and the City Hall Square between Market and Chestnut streets.

St. Louis is the seat of St. Louis University, Washington University, O'Fallon Polytechnic Institute, Jones' Commercial College, St. Louis Medical College, St. Louis Pharmaceutical Association, Homeopathic Medical College, Missouri Medical College, German Institute, and an Academy of Science, besides seveveral Benevolent and Religious societies; Seven Convents, a Law Library, Mercantile Library and Franklin Library Associations, Eight Express and Transportation Companies, Five Street Railroads, Six Omnibus Lines, Four Telegraph Companies, Six Theatres and places of Amusement and Sixteen Military Companies.

The total value of taxable property for the year 1858 was $82,160,449. The value of assessed property for the present year will be about $92,000,000. The total amount of tax assessed, $756,150. The value of Market grounds, Hospital and Quarantine grounds, Commons, Engine House grounds, Wharfs and other property belonging to the city, with stock in railroads, accumulated sinking fund, stocks and bonds of gas company, steam fire engines, apparatus, horses, &c., delinquent tax list, city's interest in buildings of independent fire companies, notes and bonds in the treasury, notes in hands of City Attorney for collection, and interest due from the St. Louis and Iron Mountain railroad in October 1858, $21,-180,800. The bonded debt of the City in October 1858, was $5,221,096, and the City revenue, according to the estimate of the Comptroller, for 1858, was $1,170,-300. The present population of the city is about 200,000.

Medical and Scientific Associations.

ACADEMY OF SCIENCE, ST. LOUIS.

The Academy of Science was organized and went into operation on the 10th of March, 1856. It obtained a charter of incorporation from the Legislature, on the 17th of January, 1857, with power to hold real estate; its property is exempt from taxation. It has collected quite a large museum, and a library of several hundred volumes, and has published two numbers, of volume one, of its transactions. It numbers about one hundred associate members, eighty-two corresponding members, and is in correspondence with a large number of other societies, home and foreign. Its revenues are about $1,200 a year. It has for its object the advancement of science and the establishment in St. Louis of a scientific library, and a museum of natural history, and it is especially devoted to the prosecution of original research in the natural history and ethnology of the American continent.

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY,

On Seventeenth street and Washington avenue.

Is an Educational Institution, founded in the city of St. Louis, under an Act of Incorporation by the State of Missouri, approved February 22d, 1853. It comprises several departments, and is intended to embrace the whole range of University studies, except Theological, and to afford opportunity of complete preparation for every sphere of Practical and Scientific life. With this view, three Departments are now established and organized, namely, the Academic, the Scientific, and the Practical (or Industrial) Departments; and other Departments will be established as circumstances may require.

By the Eighth Article of the Constitution, "no instruction, either sectarian in religion, or partisan in politics, shall be allowed in any Department of the University; and no sectarian or party test shall be used in the election of Professors, Teachers, or other officers of the University; nor shall any such test ever be used in the University for any purpose whatsoever. This article shall be understood as the fundamental condition on which all endowments, of whatever kind, are received."

☞Particular attention paid to Repairing all kinds of Saws.☜

PIASA FOUNDERY, Alton, July 1, 1859.

Editors Alton National Democrat:—DEAR SIRS: We deem it but an act of justice to other parties to state, that the circular saw, (58 inches,) used by Mr. Hamilton in his great sawing feat, which you have witnessed, and an account of which you published a few days ago in your daily issue, was made by Messrs. Curtis & Hiles' Empire Saw Works, St. Louis, Mo.; and the fact that 31,200 feet of lumber was sawed with it in fourteen hours, alone speaks volumes in their favor, as saw manufacturers; for, notwithstanding the superiority of the mill, if the saw used on that occasion had been untrue, not of the best temper, or imperfect in any respect, such a result would not have been accomplished. And we would further state, that ever since they have been manufacturing, we have used their saws on our mills, and have invariably found them the same as Mr. Hamilton's, having as yet to hear of the first complaint —and our mills are in nearly all the Western States and Territories, and some of the Southern.

No. 80 Chesnut Street,

Kennett's Block, South Side,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

FITZGIBBON'S PALACE OF ART,

Corner of Locust and Fifth Sts., St. Louis, Mo.

The subscriber takes this method of informing his numerous patrons and friends, that he has removed his celebrated Gallery from the old stand, corner of Fourth and Market streets, to the corner of Fifth and Locust streets. He would call the especial attention of the ladies to his new Gallery, the location being much more desirable than any other in the city, as they will not have to pass and repass crowds of loungers and innumerable coffee houses, as they formerly had to do on Fourth street. As this Gallery has been fitted up regardless of expense, and will be attended to in person by the subscriber, this is to inform all whom it may concern that it is not a cheap two-bit or fifty cents Gallery. There are plenty of them in the city, and persons in quest of such need not call here. All admirers of true art and lovers of fine pictures, are invited to call at any time, whether they wish pictures or not. Every style of picture known in the Arts, taken here in the most perfect manner.

JONES'
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

South-East Cor. Washington Avenue & Third Street,

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

ESTABLISHED IN 1841.

A full course of instruction in this Institution embraces Double-Entry Book-Keeping, Commercial Calculations, Commercial Law, and Penmanship.

Special instruction given in the art of detecting counterfeit money.

Gentlemen can enter for the courses separately, and at any time, as instruction is imparted individually, and not in classes, each Department being independent of the other, and under the control of a Professor educated for the especial duties of that Department in which he is employed.

For Circulars, containing information in regard to the Terms, Course of Instruction, Rules for Detecting Counterfeit Bank Notes, Weights of Produce, Tares allowed on Produce, etc., etc., call at the Book-Keeping Department, or address, Anatomical Boot Maker.

Inasmuch as comfort in wearing apparel depends much on the fit or adaptation of the garment to the shape of the body, so in boot making the same principle of adaptation of the shape of the boot to that of the foot, becomes necessary to insure comfort to the wearer.

In view of these facts, the undersigned proposes to make boots and shoes on those principles of anatomy which will bring about the above desideratum, by many so devoutly wished for—so that gentlemen unfortunately afflicted with ill-shaped, corned feet, or feet with unusually large prominence upon them, would do well to call at his office, 29 Pine street, when and where he will endeavor to make them forget their fine troubles and make their locomotion easy.

☞ The subscriber will pay particular attention to the manufacture of Ladies' walking shoes or gaiters. A neat and nice fitting boot warranted.

SYRACUSE,

Morgan County, Missouri.

C. W. BALDWIN, - - - - Manager.

SYRACUSE,

A post village of Morgan county, Mill Creek township, situated on the Pacific railroad, 169½ miles from St. Louis, and 44½ from Jefferson City. Versailles, the county seat, is within 16 miles. One year ago the site of Syracuse was an unbroken wild prairie, but it is now a thriving village of 500 inhabitants. The land is supplied with abundance of water and timber and has all the appliances wherewith to make a rich and productive farming country. The timber consists chiefly of oak and walnut. The chief productions, at present, are corn and small grain. Coal and lead are found in large quantities in the neighborhood. Improved land is worth $15 per acre and unimproved $5. The town contains a Methodist and a Baptist church, and a seminary in a flourishing condition. There are several stage lines, the Western running to Georgetown 25 miles, Warrensburg, 58 miles, Pleasant Hill, 88 miles and Independence, 115 miles; the South-Western, to Warsaw, 55 miles, Springfield 180 miles and overland California, 2500, and the Northern, to Boonville, 24 miles. It has four general stores, three steam flouring mills, an Express office, four Hotels, three steam saw mills and one stove and tin store. The population, which is rapidly increasing, amounts to about 500.

WASHINGTON,

A post town of Franklin county, in Washington township, beautifully situated on Missouri river, 10 miles from Union, the county seat, 54 miles from St. Louis, and 71 to Jefferson City. Washington was settled about 25 years ago, by Mr. Owens, and in about five years after a post office was established. From that time until the Pacific Railroad was completed to that place, there was but little progress. It is now growing as rapidly as any town in the State. It is surrounded by a rolling country of rich and fertile soil, having an outlet by river navigation and railroad, which makes it one of the best shipping points on the Missouri river.

This town contains four churches, viz.: one Catholic, one Lutheran, one Presby-

PROPRIETORS OF THE

EXCELSIOR

SAFE & SCALE WORKS,

WAREHOUSE, 29 NORTH MAIN STREET, ST. LOUIS, MO.

Bank Safes of Hardened Steel and Chilled Iron, Jewelers' and Express Safes, Vaults, Vault Doors, and Bank Locks.

The recent test of Safes of different manufactures, in THE GREAT FIRE of the City Buildings, in which the Excelsior Triumphed over all others, fully establishes the superiority of the Excelsior Safe, which justly merits the confidence of all interested in Safes and the security of their contents. The Excelsior being the only Safe, after being in the fire 90 Hours, taken out red-hot, that saved the Books and Papers, while a large number of others, in the fire but a short time, were taken out with their contents entirely consumed, must impress all with the necessity of examining their Safes—and those purchasing, to be sure, beyond a doubt, of the Safe having stood the test and come out victorious. We pledge ourselves to manufacture none but such as can be relied on. (See next page.)

RAYMOND'S

Latest Improved Double-Threaded

FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

Everybody and his wife pronounce it the best in the World.

THESE MACHINES ARE WARRANTED,

And any person purchasing them can return them and get their money, if, after a month's trial, they do not prove satisfactory. They will Stitch and Hem, Tuck and Fell, Gather and Embroider, with perfection—and are especially adapted to Family use. The following are among the advantages they possess over all other Machines:

1. They are simple, strong and durable, easily understood and managed, and not liable to get out of order.
2. They will sew all kinds of goods, from the finest to the coarsest, with equal success.
3. They use cotton from the ordinary spools without re-winding, saving time, trouble and waste.
4. The stitch is stronger and more difficult to rip than any other made by machinery, and is superior to the best hand-sewing; the two threads are double looped into each, and firmly tied and knotted at every stitch. They take the same stitch as the celebrated Grover & Baker machine, which is the best and most elastic stitch ever made.
5. They sew with cotton, linen and silk thread equally well.
6. They finish their work; there is no occasion to fasten the threads at either end of the seam, as is required by all shuttle machines.
7. Every machine is made to run by hand or foot power, thus combining the advnatages of both methods.

PRICE OF HAND MACHINE, - - - - - $27.00
With Stand and Treadle, Tools, &c., - - - - 35 00

We have a large list of references too numerous to mention, but will give the names of a few who are residents of St. Louis.

We the undersigned citizens of St. Louis, Mo., having used, successfully, Raymond's latest Improved Patent Sewing Machine for the past year in our family's service, do cheerfully recommend it to all persons wishing to purchase for family use:—

Mrs. D. B. Gale,	Mrs. S. A. Wilkinson,	Mrs. D. B. Prescott,

SOUTHGATE HOUSE,

SITUATED ON THE

South-East Corner of

Sixth and Elm Streets

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THIS LARGE, COMMODIOUS AND

CENTRAL HOTEL

Has been leased for a term of years by the subscriber, and having been closed for repairs, has undergone a thorough renovation, and is now re-opened for the accommodation of the traveling public. This house, situated on high ground, is the best ventilated of any in the city. It is six stories high, built of stone, and capable of accommodating, comfortably, 150 persons, mostly with separate apartments. The doors are fastened with the celebrated Anti-Burglar Locks, making it impossible for the door to be opened on the outside, while locked within. It presents the advantage of being located convenient to the Custom House, Post Office, and Pearl Street, now the greatest wholesale street in the city, as well as but a short distance from the theaters, and other places of amusement. The apartments are clean and well kept. Good order will always be strictly observed, and servants will be polite and attentive. From the proprietor's long experience in the business, he is confident the House shall be so conducted, as to meet the patronage of the public, and to make it the best dollar a day House in the city.

☞This House will be kept open night and day, at all hours. Omnibuses will be in attendance to and from the cars. Breakfast for early trains.

BOARD ONE DOLLAR PER DAY.

FRANK F. WATSON, Proprietor.

DIRECTION LABELS, TICKETING LABELS & TAGS,

No. 115 Chambers Street, NEW YORK.

The attention of Merchants in every line of business is called to the above TAGS and DIRECTION LABELS, which, besides being far stronger and superior in make and finish to anything in the market, are Cheaper than the common Paper Cards for the same purpose, and are put up in quantities to suit every purchaser; and, when printed, are undoubtedly the best and cheapest advertisement in use. For Prices and Samples address as above. ☞ See advertisement opposite front inside cover.

THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA.

A POPULAR DICTIONARY OF GENERAL KROWLEDGE,

Edited by GEO. RIPLEY and C. A. DANA, assisted by a numerous but select corps of writers.

The design of The New American Cyclopædia is to furnish the great body of intelligent readers in this country with a popular Dictionary of General Knowledge.

The New American Cyclopædia is not founded on any European model; in its plan and elaboration it is strictly original, and strictly American. Many of the writers employed on the work have enriched it with their personal researches, observations and discoveries; and every article has been written or re-written expressly for its pages.

It is intended that the work shall bear such a character of practical utility as to make it indispensible to every American library.

Throughout its successive volumes The New American Cyclopædia will present a fund of accurate and copious information on Science, Art, Agriculture, Commerce, Manufactures, Law, Medicine, Literature, Philosophy, Mathematics, Astronomy, History, Biography, Geography, Religion, Politics, Travels, Chemistry, Mechanics, Inventions, Trades.

Abstaining from all doctrinal discussions, from all sectional and sectarian arguments, it will maintain the position of absolute impartiality on the great controverted questions which have divided opinions in every age.

Among the writers who have contributed to the first seven volumes, are the following:

Hon. Geo. Bancroft; Geo. W. Curtis; W. Gilmore Simms, of South Carolina; J. Esten Cooke, of Virginia; D. L. Dalton, of Washington D. C.; Hon. Edward Everett; Prof. C. C. Felton; Richard Hildreth; Hon. Theophilus Parsons; George Ticknor, LL. D.; Henry T. Tuckerman; T. A. Burke, of Savannah; and numerous other distinguished writers, a list of which may be obtained upon application to the Publishers.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The work furnishes sketches, remarkable for justice and impartiality, of living persons of eminence.—N. Y. Day Book.

This work has upwards of one hundred contributors, from all parts of the World.—Christian Advocate.

As a compendium of the latest inventions, in which the present century has been so very prolific, it will at once take precedence over every other work extant.—Baltimore American.

It is but just that the agricultural press should call attention to this work as the best of its kind that has been issued from the press.—Michigan Farmer.

PRICE.

This work is published exclusively by subscription, in fifteen large octavo volumes each containing 750 two-column pages. Vols I. to VII. are now ready. Price per volume, cloth, $3; library style, leather, $3 50; half morocco, $4; half Russia, extra, $4 50.

HOW TO OBTAIN THE CYCLOPÆDIA

APPENDIX.

THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

HER SITUATION, TOPOGRAPHICAL CHARACTER, RIVERS AND COMMERCIAL FACILITIES, RAILROADS, AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTIONS, MINERAL RESOURCES, CLIMATE, SOIL AND MANUFACTURES.

Position.

The United States may be divided, naturally, into three grand divisions. The Atlantic slope, or those States which lie east of the Alleghany Mountains; the Pacific slope, including California, Oregon and the Territories west of the Rocky Mountains, and the Mississippi Valley. The latter division is by far the largest and most fertile, and hence, it must soon contain the most wealthy and powerful States in the Confederacy. In the latitude of the middle States and west of the Mississippi river, centrally located, in the great central valley of the Continent, is the State of Missouri. From its position, it embraces a greater variety of climate, and a wider range of productions than any other State in the Union. It extends from the wheat to the vine growing districts, and its climate corresponds to those districts in Europe.

Boundaries and Extent.

The State is bounded North by Iowa, East by the Mississippi River, which separates Missouri from Illinois and Kentucky, South by Arkansas, from which it is principally divided by the parallel of 36° 30′ North, and West by the Indian Territory, Kansas and Nebraska. The greatest extent of the State, East and West, is about 318 miles, and the general breadth, North and South, about 278 miles. The area of the State is 67,380 square miles, being, in size, the third in the Union. When California and Texas are divided, as they doubtless will be, Missouri will be capable of sustaining a larger population than any other State in the Union. To compare her with other States, Missouri is nearly as large as all the six New England States put together, and it is safe to say, that her agricultural resources are twice as great as the whole of them. With her great superficial area, rich mineral deposits, and unequalled commercial facilities, her population must, in a few generations, be told by millions.

Rivers and Commercial Facilities.

A glance at the map will convince any one that Missouri is a well watered State. Forming its eastern boundary, we have the great Mississippi, the largest river on the Continent, and the Missouri, the largest tributary river in the world, forming a large portion of its western boundary, and draining the middle portion of the State. The trough through which its waters flow is from four to five miles wide, and is bounded by rocky limestone hills which rise to the height of from 100 to 300 feet. Of the tributaries of the Missouri, the largest is the Osage, which joins it 120 miles from its mouth. The Gasconade is important for the supplies of lumber and timber it furnishes to the country below. The principal tributaries from the north are Grand and Chariton Rivers, both navigable and composed of numerous small streams which drain a large surface. Further west, and also falling into the Missouri, are the Platte, Nodaway and other streams. The Maramec runs through the mineral regions, and flows into the Mississippi 18 miles below St. Louis. The White and St. Francois rivers flow in a southerly direction, and pass into Arkansas. The south-western portion of the State is watered by numerous tributaries of the Arkansas river. None of these are navigable.

Railroads.

Missouri is now engaged in building up a splendid system of Railroads chiefly in an East and West direction. The State has loaned its credit as well as given a large amount of lands to the several Railroad Companies within its borders, with a view to the early completion of the several roads. Large, fertile and healthy sections of the State bordering on these lines of road are now settling rapidly, and important towns and villages springing up almost daily. The great Pacific Railroad and its south-western branch, the former 290 and the latter 810 miles long, the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad 206 miles long, extending nearly in a line due East and West through a magniffcent and productive section of the State, the surface being chiefly a fine rolling prairie, interspersed with beautiful groves of excellent timber. The North Missouri Railroad, extending in a north-westerly direction from St. Louis to the Iowa State line, and completed to Hudson, where it intersects the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad. The Iron Mountain Railroad is now completed as far as Pilot Knob, a distance of nearly 90 miles, and designed ultimately to extend through the State in a South-Easterly direction, and form a part of the great Railroad route from St. Louis to New Orleans. There are several other Railways projected and in progress.

Topographical Character.

This great State is chiefly undulating prairie north of the Missouri, while the portion south of that River exhibits a greater variety of surface. In the south-east part near the Mississippi river and south of Cape Girardeau, is an extensixe marsh reaching beyond this State into Arkansas, an area of about 3000 square miles. This portion of the State was visited in 1811 and 1812 with a dreadful earthquake which caused thousands of acres to be sunk, and multitudes of lakes and ponds were created. The church yard in the village of New Madrid, with its sleeping tenants, was precipitated into the river. The earth burst in what are called sand blows. Earth, sand and water were thrown up to great heights in the air. The river was damned up, and flowed backwards; birds descended from the air and took shelter in the bosoms of people that were passing. The whole country was inundated. A great number of boats passing on the river were sunk; one or two that were fasten-to Islands went down with the Islands. The country was but sparsely settled, and most of the buildings were cabins or built of logs, and it was from these circumstances that but few people perished. The Ozark mountains which also traverse the State of Arkansas, extend through Missouri centrally from north to south. The rich alluvial tracts of the Mississippi lie east of this district, and westward are boundless and treeless plains sweeping away through southern Kansas and the Indian Territories to the Rocky Mountains. The ridges forming the Ozark chain extend in a north-east and south-west direction, separating the waters that flow north-east into the Missouri river, from those that flow south-east into the Mississippi River. The geological features of this State are very interesting. One of the richest coal fields in the world occupies the greater part of the State north of the Osage river and extends nearly to the Iowa State line.

Climate, Soil, &c.

Extending over four degrees of latitude, Missouri has a wide range of climate The central and inland position of the State assures to its inhabitants extraordinary freedom from the sudden and trying changes which are felt by the residents nearer the sea coast in the same latitude. The difference of temperature between the cold of winter and the heat of summer is great—the extreme range of the thermometer being from 8° below zero to 100° above. But the seasons in their progress, are gradual and uniform, subject to few or no abrupt and violent transitions. The air is pure and salubrious, and the climate may be classed among those most favorable to health. Heretofore it has been generally believed that the fever and ague and various kinds of bilious fevers, were specially virulent in Missouri, and it must be confessed there was some foundation for the charge. It should be known however, that in order to secure a market for their produce, the early inhabitants settled near the navigable rivers, on or near the bottom lands, which, when they are first settled, are always prolific in such diseases. After they are brought into cultivation they become more healthy. Many of the diseases from which emigrants suffer are induced by drinking surface water. Water in most places is found only a few feet below the surface; in such case the well is filled with leachings of the rich vegetable mould contained in the soil, and of course such water must generate disease. The wells should be dug deep, and for the first few feet below the surface, packed with blue clay to keep out the surface water, or what would be still better, cisterns be provided.

The soil upon the up-lands is, in general, very productive, consisting both of prairie and extensive tracts of wood-land; but these are interspersed with rocky ridges and elevated barrens. The low lands, bordering on the rivers, are extremely rich. Indian corn and other grains, hemp, flax, tobacco and sweet potatoes are among the products of the field. Cotton is raised in the Southern sections of the State. Among the forest trees are various species of oak, walnut, locust, ash, cedar, &c. Yellow and white pine abound in some localities.

Agricultural Productions.

The bulk of the population is employed in agriculture, but in mining and manufactnres much progress has been made, and commerce, in all its various branches, is largely engaged in. Enough has already been said of the climate and soil of Missouri to show conclusively that her capacity to produce, with an efficient system of agriculture, cannot be excelled by her sister States. It only remains for the planters of Missouri to improve the advantages spread in profusion around them, and great must be their reward. We have not the means at hand for giving the exact amounts of the different products of 1858. The following figures, however, may be considered approximates, which show that the amounts far exceed those of former years, when it is known that since the opening of the several Railways in the State, a large extent of country hitherto undeveloped, is now highly improved and thickly settled, the figures given will be considered under the average.

Wheat, (bushels)	8,485,414
Indian Corn, (bushels)	72,139,086
Oats, (bushels)	12,269,833
Tobacco, (pounds)	32,491,679
Hemp and Flax, (tons)	28,484
Neat Cattle, (heads)	1,415,784
Swine, (heads)	2,256,057
Sheep, (heads)	1,512,618
Wool, (pounds)	3,029,737

The other products are rye, peas, beans, fruits, butter, cheese, Irish and sweet potatoes, honey and beeswax, barley, wine, hops, silk, molasses, maple sugar and some rice.

Mineral Resources.

Missouri is remarkably rich in mineral treasures, especially in the value of its iron and lead mines. The region in the vicinity of Iron Mountain and Pilot Knob is perhaps unsurpassed on the globe for productiveness in iron of the very best quality—yielding some 80 per cent. of the pure metal. The lead region is known to occupy an area of over 3000 square miles, and is situated within an average distance of 70 miles from the city of St. Louis. The ore is of that description denominated "galena," and is found, not in veins, but in separate masses. It yields from 80 to 85 per cent. 10,000,000 or 12,000,000 pounds are produced annually. Copper, zinc, calamine, antimony, cobalt, nitre, plumbago, salt, &c., are among the mineral products of the same region. Bituminous coal is abundant in various localities near the Mississippi and on the line of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad.

Manufactures.

Iron. lead and lumber are among the chief articles manufactured. There are also large numbers of grist mills, distilleries, potteries, brick, stone and marble yards, breweries, carriage and machiue factories, and other establishments for the production of commodities requisite for home use, the whole employing a capital of several millions of dollars.

Conclusion.

We should like, had we space, and sufficient nerve, to turn to the future and speculate upon what Missouri is destined to become within the lifetime of the children born in 1860. Situated as near as may be in the centre of the great central valley of the continent; with so large a territory, and so much of it still to be brought under cultivation; with agricultural and mineral resources, which it were worse than folly to attempt to estimate; a climate stretching through four degrees of latitude, and railroads and navigable rivers running through the State in all directions and on all sides of her, giving her unequaled commercial facilities; with her chief commercial and manufacturing city almost at the very focus toward which converge the Mississippi, the Missouri, the Ohio and the Illinois rivers; and with a vast multitnde of intelligent and enterprising people pouring in upon us, determined to make their homes amid our quiet groves and upon our rich and beautiful prairies—he would be a bold reasoner, indeed, who should dare to predict what even the next fifty years will accomplish of our glorious State. Let those who want cheap lands, and the dearest of all earthly possessions, a "HOME OF THEIR OWN;" those who have strong arms and honest hearts, and a will to achieve fame and fortune in manufacturing, mercantile, mechanical or professional pursuits; those who have capital and want to invest it to the best possible advantage—and in fact all who want to rise in honor, wealth and influence in a rising State, cast their lot with us, and our word for it, not one in ten thousand will ever regret that he became a citizen of the State of Missouri.

SPECIAL LAWS OF MISSOURI.

Exemptions.

There is in this State exempted from sale on execution, the wearing-apparel of all persons, and the necessary tools, implements of trade, of any mechanic while carrying on his trade, and the following articles, being the property of any person being a householder, namely: ten head of choice hogs, ten head of choice sheep, two cows and calves; one plough, one axe, one hoe, and one set of plough-gears; working animals, of the value of sixty-five dollars; the spinning-wheels and cards, one loom and apparatus, necessary for manufacturing cloth in a private family; all the spun yarn, thread, and cloth manufactured for family use; flax, hemp, and wool, twenty-five pounds of each; all wearing apparel of the family; two beds, with the usual bedding; and such other household and kitchen furniture necessary for the family, not exceeding in value twenty-five dollars; all arms and military equipments required by law to be kept; all provisions on hand for family use, not exceeding twenty-five dollars in value. All lawyers, physicians, and ministers, may select such books necessary to their profession in the place of other property, at their option; doctors of medicine, in lieu of property exempt, may select their medicines.

Instead of ten hogs, ten sheep, two cows, and calves, one plough, one axe, one hoe, one set of plough-gears, and working animals of the value of sixty-five dollars, the debtor, if the head of a family, may select any other property, real or personal, not exceeding in value one hundred and fifty dollars.

The wife's property is exempt from sale on execution against her husband, if the debt was contracted before marriage, before she came into possession, or if it was a security debt. It is also exempt from execution for fine or costs in any criminal case against her husband.

The husband's property is exempt from all debts and liabilities contracted by the wife before marriage.

Mechanics' Lien.

Contractors, sub-contractors, artisans and laborers, shall have a lien for work and materials on the buildings.

Every person, except sub-contractors, must file with the clerk of the Circuit Court of the county in which the building is, within six months after the materials are furnished or the work is done, a true account of his demand, verified by his oath, and a correct description of the property.

Sub-contractors must give notice to the owners of their intention to furnish materials or labor, and the probable value thereof; and having settled the amount afterward with the contractor, must, within ten days after the labor is done or the materials are furnished, file in the like office a copy of such settlement, and a correct description of the property charged with the lien.

The lien to bind the building for twelve months after it is finished.

The owner not to settle with the contractor until the sub-contractor's liens are discharged.

Lien to extend to the land on which the building is erected, and not exceeding five hundred square feet clear of the building.

Chattel Mortgages.

The property must be delivered to and retained by the mortgagee, or the mortgage must be acknowledged or proved and recorded in the county in which the mortgager resides, the same as deeds of real property.

Law regulating Contracts.

All contracts which, by common law, are joint only, shall be construed to be joint and several.

A joint debt or contract survives against the heirs, executors, and administrators of the deceased obligor or promisor, as well as against the survivor, also against the heirs, executors, and administrators of all the joint obligors, if all are dead.

Suit may be prosecuted against any one or more copartners, in case of copartnership, obligation, or assumption.

No action shall be brought to charge any executor or administrator, upon any special promise, to answer any debt or damages out of his own estate; or to charge any person, upon any special promise, to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another person; or to charge any person upon any agreement made upon consideration of marriage; or upon any contract for the sale of lands, tenements, hereditaments, of or any interest in or concerning them, or any lease thereof for a longer term than one year; or upon any agreement that is not to be performed within one year from the making thereof, unless the agreement upon which the action shall be brought, or some memorandum or note thereof, shall be in writing, and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or some other person by him thereto lawfully authorized.

No contract for the sale of goods, wares, and merchandize, for the price of thirty dollars or upward, shall be allowed to be good, except the buyer shall accept part of the goods so sold, and shall actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the bargain or in part payment, or unless some note or memorandum in writing be made of the bargain, and signed by the parties to be charged with such contract, or their agents lawfully authorized.

Actions shall not be brought to charge any person for representations of the character, conduct, credit, ability, trade, or dealings, of another person, unless such representation is in writing, and subscribed by the person to be charged thereby, or by some person by him thereunto lawfully authorized.

Limitation of Actions.

All actions founded upon any writing, whether sealed or unsealed, for the direct payment of money or property, must be commenced within ten years after the cause of such action accrued—also, actions on covenants of seizin and actions for relief, not otherwise provided for. Actions on covenants of warranty, within ten years after final decision against title of warrantor.

Actions upon contracts, &c., express or implied, except upon judgments or decrees of courts of record, and except where a different time is limited; actions upon a liability created by statute, other than a penalty or forfeiture; actions for trespass on real estate; actions for taking, detaining, or injuring goods and chattels, or for the recovery of specific personal property; actions for criminal conversation or other injury to the rights of persons, not otherwise limited, within five years. Actions for relief on the ground of fraud, within five years, the cause of action accruing at the discovery of the fraudulent acts.

Actions against sheriffs or coroners, and actions for penalty or forfeiture, where the penalty is given to the party aggrieved, or to him, or to the state, within three years.

Actions for libel, assault, battery, or false imprisonment, and actions for penalty or forfeiture to the state, within two years.

Actions against sheriffs, &c., for escape, one year.

On a current account, the cause of action accrues at the time of the last item in the account on the adverse side.

Qui tam actions, within one year after the commission of the offence, or within two years if not brought by a private party, if commenced by the attorney-general or circuit attorney in behalf of the state.

Limitations apply to actions brought by the state or for its benefit.

Infants, married women, persons insane or imprisoned, have the same periods respectively after their disability is removed.

A promise in writing is necessary to revive action barred by this act.

Bonds, judgments, and decrees, are presumed to have been paid after the lapse of twenty years; such presumption being liable to be repelled by proof of payment in part, or written acknowledgment of the indebtedness.

Collection of Debts.

ATTACHMENT.—Attachment may issue—1. Where the debtor does not reside within the State; 2. Or conceals himself so that process cannot be served upon him; 3. Or the debtor has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode in this State, so that process cannot be served on him; 4. Or is about to remove his property out of the State, with the intent to defraud, hinder, or delay, his creditors; 5. Or has fraudulently conveyed or assigned his property, so as to hinder or delay his creditors; 6. Or has fraudulently concealed or disposed of his property, so as to hinder or delay his creditors; 7. Or is about fradulently to convey or assign his property or effects, so as to hinder or delay his creditors; 8. Or is about fraudulently to conceal or dispose of his property, so as to hinder or delay his creditors; 9. Where the debt was contracted out of this State, and the debtor has absconded or secretly removed his property into this State, with the intent to defraud, hinder, or delay his creditors. In the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth cases, attachment may issue though the debt be not due.

Before attachment can issue, affidavit must be made by the plaintiff, or some person for him, stating that the defendant is justly indebted to the plaintiff in the sum claimed, after allowing all just credits and off-sets; stating, also, on what account the debt was incurred and that affiant has good reason to believe and does believe the existence of one or more of the above causes, which entitle him to an attachment. Bond must also be given with one or more securities, resident householders of the county in which the action is to be brought, in a sum at least double the amount of the demand sworn to. If the defendant puts in issue the truth of the affidavit, the plaintiff must prove the facts therein alleged as grounds of attachment.

N. B. Non-resident parties wishing to sue their debtors in this State by attachment, should send, with the demand, an affidavit setting out the above facts, and should also take measures to provide the requisite security.

Imprisonment for debt is abolished.

Deeds.

Every conveyance of freehold estate must be subscribed and sealed by the grantor and acknowledged or proved (if in this State) before some court having a seal, or some judge, justice, or clerk thereof, or some notary public or justice of the peace of the county in which the land lies; if in the United States and out of this State before any court of the United States, or of any State or territory having a seal, or the clerk of any such court, or commissioner for this State residing at the place where the acknowledgment is taken; and in foreign countries, before any court of such country having a seal, or the mayor of any city having an official seal. Relinquishments of dower may be taken by the same officers, but acknowleegments of married women, when conveying their separate estate, can be taken ouly by some court, judge, or clerk, authorized to take acknowledgments in other cases.

A certificate thereof must be endorsed on the deed, under the hand and seal of the officer.

The deed should be recorded in the county where the land is situated. No deed is valid except between the parties thereto and such as have actual notice thereof, until the same is filed for record.

The person acknowledging must be personally known to the officer or one judge of the court, to be the person whose name is subscribed as a party thereto, or shall be proved to be such by two credible witnesses, which shall be stated in the certificate.

In addition, a married woman, upon relinquishing her dower, shall be made acquainted with the contents of the deed, and shall acknowledge, on an examination apart from her husband, that she executed the same, and relinquished her dower in the real estate herein mentioned, freely and without compulsion or undue influence of her husband; all which must be stated in the certificate.

Form of Acknowledgment, with Relinquishment of Dower.

State of Missouri, }
County of Benton, } ss.

Be it remembered, that on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, before me, JOHN JONES, a justice of the peace in and for said county, personally appeared JOHN DOE and SUSAN his wife, to me personally known to be the persons whose names are subscribed to the foregoing deed, as parties thereto, and acknowledged that they executed the same for the purposes therein mentioned; and the said SUSAN, being by me examined apart from her husband, and made fully acquainted with the contents of the foregoing deed, acknowledged that she executed the same [and relinquished the dower in the real estate therein mentioned], freely and without fear, compulsion, or undue influence of her said husband.

Witness my hand, the day and year first above written.

JOHN JONES, Justice of the Peace.

A scrawl of the pen may be used instead of a seal.

A married woman may convey any of her real estate by a conveyance executed by herself and husband. The husband must join in the conveyance. Her acknowledgment is to be taken by some court, judge, or clerk, as above stated, she having first been made acquainted with the contents of the deed by the officer, and on an examination separate and apart from her husband. The certificate of acknowledgment must be precisely similar to that given above, excepting that the words "and relinquished her dower in the real estate therein mentioned" must be omitted.

Rights of Married Women.

Property owned by a woman before marriage, or in any way acquired subsequent to her marriage, and the use and profits thereof, are exempt from debts and liabilities of her husband contracted before marriage or before the wife came into possession of such property. Such property is absolutely exempt from the husband's security debts, whenever contracted, and also from fines or costs, imposed on the husband in any criminal case.

DOWER.—The wife is endowed of one-third of all the lands of which her husband, or any one to his use, was seized, of an estate of inheritance, at any time during the marriage; also, of leasehold estate for the term of twenty years or more.

The widow is also entitled to have and keep, as her absolute property, all her implements of industry, and all her beds, bedding, wearing apparel, provisions, &c., requisite for the family; also, kitchen furniture to the value of twenty dollars, and any other personal property to the value of two hundred dollars. In addition, she is entitled as follows, viz.:

1st. If the husband leaves descendants—to a child's share of the personal estate, absolutely, or at her option, or to one-third of the slaves for her life, and one-third of the other personal property, absolutely, subject to her husband's debts.

2d. If the husband leaves no descendants—to all the real and personal estate which came to the husband in right of the marriage, remaining undisposed of, absolutely, and to one-half of the real and personal estate belonging to the husband at the time of his death, absolutely, subject to the husband's debts.

3d. If the husband leaves descendants, but not by his last marriage, his widow may, in lieu of dower, take the real estate and personal property in possession of the husband which came to him in right of his wife by means of the marriage, subject to the husband's debts.

Rate of Interest.

The rate of interest is six per cent. If plea of usury be sustained, judgment shall be rendered for legal interest only, which interest shall be paid to the common school fund. In addition, a usurer shall, upon information to any justice of the peace or court having jurisdiction, forfeit and pay to the common schools the whole interest agreed upon.

Wills.

They must be in writing, signed by the testator, or by some person in his presence and at his request, and attested by two competent witnesses, who shall subscribe their names as witnesses in the presence of the testator.

Wills must be recorded within thirty days after probate. If lands in different counties are devised, a copy of the will shall be recorded in the recorder's office in each county, within six months after probate.

Bills and receipts for payment of moneys for newspapers may be enclosed in subscribers' papers.

Exchange between newspaper publishers, for one copy from each office, free.

Newspapers, &c., to be so enclosed that the character can be determined without removing the wrapper; to have nothing written or printed on the paper or wrapper beyond the direction, and to contain no enclosure other than the bills or receipts mentioned. Pay all postage on your own business, and to editors; and sign your name, and also direct all letters, &c., sent by mail, plainly.

Pamphlets are defined to be printed and unbound publications, relating only to subjects of local, ephemeral or temporary interests. Hence, (except those containing less than sixteen pages,) no publication, even if unbound, that does not come within the above definition, will be permitted to pass as "pamphlets," but will be treated and charged as a "book." Pamphlets in packages are charged ½ cent per ounce: books and single pamphlets, 1 cent per ounce. A fraction over the ounce is counted as an additional ounce.

All letters, except to foreign places, must be pre-paid, or they will not be forwarded.

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters,

Will positively cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Fever and Ague, &c., and will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Billious Fever, &c.

READ THE EVIDENCE.

[From J. Maginnis, of the New Orleans True Delta]

NEW ORLEANS, July 20, 1859.

MESSRS. C. M. JACKSON & Co., Gent'lemen: I have for a long time looked upon your Hoofland's German Bitters as the very best Dyspeptic preparation extant. But I am now disposed to accord to it still higher merit. I find that it will effectually prevent the ravages of that scourge of this climate, Yellow Fever. During the prevalence of that disease last summer, I had ample opportunity of witnessing its efficacy, and I firmly believe that even an unacclimated person, with proper precaution and the use of your Bitters as directed, could safely summer it in New Orleans. As a preventive of Fever and Ague also, I cheerfully endorse all you claim for it. Respectfully Yours. JOHN MAGINNIS, Prop'r True Delta.

[From T. Richardson, Esq., of the Galveston News.]

GALVESTON, Texas, Sept. 25, 1858

DR. C. M JACKSON—Dear Sir: You suggested to me before leaving Philadelphia to take a few bottles of your Bitters along, as a preventive against Yellow Fever, which is now raging here and in N. Orleans. I did so and used it freely on my route home, I was accompanied by several Texians who also took it as prescribed, none of us having had the fever except myself. All passed through New Orleans without being attacked by the epidemic, and some of them whom I have since met, attribute their escape in a great measure to the use of your excellent specific. From what I have heard from other sources, and my own experience I have no hesitation in saying I believe Hoofland's German Bitters an excellent article for the prevention of Yellow Fever and many other diseases peculiar to the South, if taken in time and as directed.

Yours truly, T. RICHARDSON, Editor and Proprietor of Galveston News.

[From Rev. John Berg, of the Baltimore True Union]

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: Your Hoofland's German Bitter's is deservedly popular, and I believe is calculated to remove a host of the evils which flesh is heir to." Yours truly, JOHN BERG.

☞ Prepared only by C. M. Jackson & Co., 418 Arch St. Philadelphia, and for sale by Druggists and dealers generally. Price 75 cents per bottle.

THE AMERICAN PUMP.

This pump, patented April 5, 1859, is now in successful operation in all depths from 10 to 100 feet in twenty-four States, working by hand, horse, wind, water and steam. It is exceedingly simple and durable, is made of wrought and cast iron, all of which can be galvanised—it will not rust—it will not freeze; can be used with iron, lead, or rubber pipe, throws water by hose 30 to 40 feet; giving a constant flow of water, being a DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMP; has no suction or packing, and no extra appliances from 10 to 100 feet; less friction and greater leverage than any other pump: is adapted to cisterns tanks, wells, railroads, mines, machinery, and irrigation, and warranted to give satisfaction, or the money in every failure to be refunded. Prices from $15 to $60 according to size.

One of the pumps in operation in this vicinity enables us to state that full confidence can be placed in the advertisement."—Presbyterian Banner and Advocate, Pittsburgh, Pa "In truth it surpasses anything of the kind we ever examined."—United States Journal. "A woman or boy can work it at 50 feet and a man at 100 all day."—Independent, N. Y. We have ordered one for our own use, and by seeing it work, esteem it the best force pump we ever have known."—Galveston News, Texas. "The best pump we ever saw, have one, and recommend it to everybody—Southern Planter, Richmond, Va. "We speak from personal knowledge, and say with all candor, of all the pumps we ever saw, and they have been many, we have never seen one at all comparable to this. A man can scarcely fail to be pleased with them. If you want a good pump, get this."—St. Louis Christian Advocate, Nov. 10th, 1859.

SOLDERS.

Hard solder.—Copper 2 parts, zinc 1 part—used with powdered borax.
Pewterer's solder.—Tin 2 parts, antimony 1 part.
Plumber's solder.—1 part each, lead and tin.
Tinman's solder.—Tin 1 part, lead 2 parts; or, pewter 4 parts, tin 1, and bismuth 1. Resin is used with the last three.
Solder for Iron.—Tough brass—used with borax.

ALLOYS AND COMPOSITIONS.

Yellow brass.—Copper 3 parts, zinc 1 part.
Spelter.—Copper 2 parts, zinc 1 part.
For Lathe bushes.—Copper 16 parts, tin 4 parts, zinc 1 part.
" " " harder.—Copper 16 parts, tin 4 parts, zinc 2 parts.
Improved Babbit metal.—This composition, for the lining of boxes, shaft bearings, etc., which, from the satisfaction it has thus far given, bids fair to come into general use, is composed of tin 12 parts, antimony 3 parts, and copper 2 parts. The original recipe for this alloy was, tin 6 parts, antimony regulus 2 parts, and copper 1 part, as its prime equivalents, to which, when about to be remelted for use, two parts of copper to one of the composition were added.
For Pulley Blocks.—Copper 7 parts, tin 1 part.
For Wheels, Boxes and Cocks.—Copper 8 parts, tin 1 part.
Bronze—Government gun-metal.—9 parts copper, 1 part tin. The specific gravity of this composition is greater than the mean of its constituents.
For Valves.—10 parts copper, 1 part tin.
Bell Metal.—36 parts copper, 11 parts tin.
Gong Metal.—40 parts copper, 5 tin, 2.8 zinc, 2.15 lead.
Bath Metal.—32 parts brass, 9 parts zinc.
Blanched Copper.—16 parts copper, 1 part arsenic.
Brittannia Metal.—1 part each—brass, tin, bismuth, antimony.
Petong, or Chinese white Copper.—20.2 parts copper, 15.8 nickel, 12.7 zinc, and 1.3 iron.
German Silver.—2 parts copper, 1 nickel, 1 zinc. When this composition is intended to be rolled into plates, it is composed of 60 parts copper, 25 parts nickel, 20 of zinc and 3 of lead.
Manheim Gold.—3 parts copper, 1 of zinc, and a small quantity of tin.
Mock Gold.—16 parts copper, 7 parts platinum, 1 part zinc.
Mock Platinum.—8 parts brass, 5 parts zinc.
Speculum Metal.—7 parts copper, 3 zinc, 4 tin; or, 6 parts copper, 2 of tin, and 1 of arsenic.
Tombac or Gilding Metal.—9 parts copper, and 1 part zinc.
Moek Iron—expanding alloy—Lead 9 parts, antimony 2 parts, bismuth 1 part. This composition expands in cooling, and is used in filling small defects in iron castings.
Ring, or Jeweler's Gold.—150 parts pure gold, 39 parts copper, 22 parts pure silver.
Queen's Metal.—Tin nine parts, antimony 1, lead 1, bismuth 1.
Pewter, common.—Tin 4 parts, lead 1.
Pewter, best.—Tin 100 parts, antimony 17.
Steel, alloyed with 1-500th part of platinum, or to the same extent with silver, is rendered harder, more malleable, and better adapted for every kind of cutting instrument.

In making an alloy the rule should be observed to melt that metal which fuses the least readily first, and to add the others in order successfully, until all are added, when the whole should be thoroughly incorporated and poured without delay, taking care that the mass be not too hot.

INDIANAPOLIS & CINCINNATI

Short Line Railroad

SHORTEST ROUTE BY 30 MILES,

THE ONLY ROUTE WITHOUT CHANGE OF CARS.

THREE TRAINS

Leave Indianapolis daily, on the arrival of Trains from Peru, Lafayette and Terre Haute.

Through to Cincinnati in Advance of all other Routes.

Connecting at Cincinnati with all the Great Eastern and Southern Railroad Lines, and with Steamers on the Ohio River.

The Line of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad commences at Indianapolis, the capital of Indiana, and passing through the towns of

Shelbyville, Greensburg, Lawrenceburg, and North Bend,

(In view of the Residence and Tomb of the late General Harrison,) terminates at Cincinnati, the Queen City of the West.

This Road was projected with a view to accommodate the travel and trafic, which coming from the North-west, seeks through the Railroad City, (Indianapolis,) a direct avenue to the great commercial metropolis of the west.

For this purpose the two cities have been connected by a direct line of Railroad, of uniform guage, 110 miles in length, built in a style second to no other road in the Union, being first class in all its equipments for the transportation of passengers and freight in the shortest time and at low rates.

With favorable and reliable arrangements wth all connecting roads, throughout the entire West, this line guarantees, unusual care and the amplest accommodations to its patrons.

SLEEPING CARS ATTACHED TO NIGHT TRAINS.

The Company's exclusive Telegraph Line is used, when necessary, to govern the movement of Trains, and Loughridge's Celebrated Patent Car Brakes are attached to all Passenger Trains, by which they can be perfectly controlled; besides all the other modern improvements necessary for the comfort and safety of passengers, the managers of this road have liberally provided.

Fare the same as by any other Route. Baggage Checked Through.

MAY'S

PATENT JAIL

Allow me to call your attention to my new Prison, for which I received Letters Patent on the 4th day of October, 1859. I have devoted five years to perfecting this improvement, and it is not saying too much when I state that I can now present to the public one that is safe to the Jailor and secure for the Prisoner. The cost for building after my patent will not exceed that of the old and unsafe method of construction. And jails already built can easily have my Patent Improvement added at a small expense, and it is equally well adapted to Stone or Iron Prisons. In my arrangement the Jailor need never come in contact with the prisoner. There is always a grating of iron between the keeper and those confined. They are under his control and at his command all the time without the risk of direct communication, the danger of which is known to all who have had the charge of prisons. This is all accomplished in such a manner that those who are about to erect such buildings will not hesitate to adopt my patent when they see the working model which I will exhibit to those interested upon application to me. The ventilation is also perfected in my improvement, and great economy is attained in feeding prisoners. It is a well known fact that nine out of ten escapes from County prisons are made over the body of the Jailor. Almost every newspaper contains notices of this kind. In the month of October, 1859, in the Western States alone there were twenty-five such escapes, and in one instance the Deputy Jailor was killed, and in all the cases the Jailor's life was more or less endangered.

A PERFECT PLAN AND MODEL FOR A PRISON,

In view of these facts it is the duty of every person who may be connected by virtue of his office with, or who has control over the County Prisons of the different States to investigate the improvement I have made. On application I will forward a working model for inspection, the expense of the transportation only being charged, and I will personally attend when requested, if my expenses are paid.

I am at all times prepared to furnish plans of Prisons to be built of Stone or Iron, my Patent being well adapted to either of these materials. I have also made arrangements with experienced persons to contract and put up complete, in all its parts, any Iron Jail that may be wanted with my improvement.

For State or County Rights apply to EDWIN MAY, Patentee,
